CRJ 7200-04 (3 Credits)

MINORITIES & CRIMINAL JUSTICE
Synchronous Class: Monday 6:00 – 9:00 PM
https://us02web.zoom.us/j/9684949255

CONTACT
Dr. Stuart Parker
368-6751
Stuart.parker@kbcc.cuny.edu
Office: D309
Student Hours: Thurs 3 PM – 4 PM
or by appointment

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. Learning Outcomes (pg.2)
II. Creating a Partnership (pg.2)
   • My Expectations of You
   • My Expectations of Myself
III. Tips for A Successful Semester (pg.3)
   • Course Theme
   • Power Tools
   • Your Brain is a Muscle
   • Learning Is Social
   • Assignments
   • Grading
   • Data
   • Resources
   • KCC Protocols
IV. Writing Growth Rubric (pg.9)

“Real education means to inspire people to live more abundantly, to learn to begin with life as they find it and make it better.”

“What we need is not a history of selected races or nations, but the history of the world void of national bias, race hate, and religious prejudice.”

- Carter G. Woodson

WELCOME STUDENTS!

I'm super excited to explore the three key themes of this course with you - we'll be looking at how different groups are labeled as “minorities,” why certain activities are considered “criminal,” and what “justice” really means. Together, we'll delve into how society and culture shape these concepts, not just in the US, but across the world and throughout history.

I want to create a open and inclusive environment that encourages diverse perspectives. My goal is to equip you with the tools to think critically about social justice issues, so you feel confident analyzing and discussing them in your daily life.

Let's work together to create a supportive and equitable classroom where everyone feels represented and validated!
I. LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Be able to describe how institutions, cultural narratives and economic forces influence the definitions of crime and the forms of justice that operate in a particular society.

- Be able to describe the process is social construction that underlies a particular set of behaviors labelled criminal and the systems of enforcement that surrounds it.

- Be able to describe ways of improving one or more aspects of the current system of criminal justice in this country.

II. CREATING A PARTNERSHIP

My Expectations of You:

- That you believe in your abilities and intelligence to be successful in this course.

- That you will ask questions. The whole point is to learn something new and grow in ways you did not expect.

- That you will make mistakes. No one gets everything right the first time, and one of the best ways to learn is to try and learn from your mistakes.

- That you will treat everyone in the class with respect. All ideas are welcomed as long as they are offered in a reasonable and respectful way.

My Expectations of Myself:

- That I will prepare materials that help you master the basic skills of the course.

- That I will be available to answer questions, provide prompts to help you think deeper about the questions we explore, and provide additional learning opportunities if you want to pursue this subject further.

- That I will treat each of you fairly and with respect, and will foster a classroom environment where it is okay to ask questions, take risks and make mistakes.

- That I will give you multiple opportunities to understand and learn the core concepts. Instead of focusing on how quickly you learn, my grading will focus on what you have learned throughout the course.
III. TIPS FOR A SUCCESSFUL SEMESTER

Course Theme:

The theme of this course is Borders, Social Control, and Systems of Extraction. Rather than the traditional idea that the criminal justice system aims to identify and punish criminals, my approach focuses on how different groups are treated and controlled within the system. Policing, courts, and corrections are used to extract value in the form of labor, wealth, or profit from minority groups. This requires us to examine the political and economic forces that shape the criminal justice system throughout history.

Power Tools:

Regardless of whether you want to become a sociologist, this course will equip you with valuable "power tools" to understand and predict social and economic dynamics that shape behavior. These skills will enable you to make better decisions about achieving your goals.

Your Brain is a Muscle:

Intelligence is not fixed, and everyone can improve. Learn from mistakes, persist, and challenge yourself. Reframe failure as feedback and keep trying!

Focus on how much you learn, not submitting all the work to earn a good grade

Learning Is Social:

You really only understand something when you can explain it to another person. I will facilitate you learning the key ideas of the course with each other in the following ways:

- Small group work in each class session.

- Annotations on all of the texts that we read so that you can share ideas, thoughts and questions with your classmates.

- Sharing your Civic Engagement Lab and Controversy Paper ideas with your peers.

How much you get out of these experiences depends upon how actively you engage with those around you.
Assignments:

- Participation. Each week there will be opportunities to share your ideas with others in the class through discussion boards, blogs and annotations.

- Civic Engagement Lab. Attend three Criminal Justice System-related events, such as a court hearing or a city council hearing on Rikers Island's closure. Details on the assignment will be provided in the second class.

- Controversy Analysis. As the culminating learning activity of the course, you will choose a current controversial issue within the CRJ system and analyze both sides of the controversy and present an argument for your preferred solution.

- Midterm and Final exam. Midterm and final exams will assess your understanding of the course concepts and provide feedback on your knowledge.

- Extra Credit. There will be a folder in the course information section of Blackboard composed of enrichment assignments for extra credit. Choose a book from the list provided for up to 10 points towards the final grade.

Grading:

- Participation: 10%
- Civic Engagement Lab: 20%
- Controversy Analysis: 25%
- Midterm Exam: 20%
- Final Exam: 25%

- The Grade Center. The Grade Center feature in Blackboard won't be used. You will see assignments and numbers in the Grade Center, but I maintain my own spreadsheet to calculate grades. I work hard at grading and returning your work on a timely basis. You can tell how you are doing in the class by looking at what assignments you have completed, which assignments remain and how you have done on each.

- TurnitIn. Use TurnitIn, which can be accessed on Blackboard, to submit Analytic Essays, the Midterm and Final Exams.

- Attendance. Attendance is essential for success, as group work, activities and discussions will build upon assignments like readings and videos.
Data: Use your observations and experiences as sources of data throughout the semester.

- History. Sociologists aim to understand what causes change over time and apply sociological concepts to historical facts to explain why something happened and make predictions about the future.

- Single concept - The Social Construction of Reality. Focus on understanding social construction as the key concept to develop a sociological way of thinking.

- Feedback. Use feedback from the instructor and classmates to your advantage to learn and succeed in the course.

Textbook:
The required text for the course will be:
The New Jim Crow by Michelle Alexander  ISBN: 978-1620971932

Since this book was first published in 2010, it has become a foundational text that has had a lasting impact on our understanding of the criminal justice system and how to reform it.

The recommended text for the course will be:
Homegoing by Yaa Gyasi  ISBN: 978-1101947135

This novel, by a young Ghanian-born woman who grew up in Huntsville, Alabama, is essential reading, particularly if you are not from the United States. It will give you deep, complex and compelling background knowledge that will help you understanding the enduring influence of the Atlantic Slave Trade on this country.

Blackboard:
The assignments for each class, along with other course materials will be on Blackboard.

If you cannot currently access Blackboard you should contact the help desk at KCC:
718-368-6679

If you need to increase your proficiency with blackboard you may look here:
http://www.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/CIS/functions/bb/userguides/blackboard.html for more information.
Resources:

- Writing. Strong writing skills are essential to success and students are encouraged to take advantage of resources to improve their writing.

  In order to improve your writing skills you may want to take advantage of the Kingsborough Writing Center

  Library Room L219 A description of their services can be found at:
  http://www.kbcc.cuny.edu/rwc/Pages/default.asp

  If you need help with grammar and sentence mechanics you can also find help at:
  http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/.

  The College also has a Writing Fellows program which you will be able to access during the semester. More information will be forthcoming later in September.

- Accommodations. If you have any particular learning needs please let me know in whatever way feels comfortable to you and we will figure out a way to make the class work for you. Access-Ability Services (AAS) serves as a liaison and resource to the KCC community regarding disability issues, promotes equal access to all KCC programs and activities, and makes every reasonable effort to provide appropriate accommodations and assistance to students with disabilities. I will make any accommodations that you need once you provide documentation from the Access-Ability office (D205). Please contact AAS for assistance.

- Communication. I have created a gmail account for this course which you can use for any questions, requests or information that you want to share with me.

  The address is:
  crjjusticekcc@gmail.com.

  I will check this account once in the morning and once again before 5:00 PM. I will try to respond within 24 hours, but please note that I am also Chair of the department and there will be times when my response time will be a little longer. You should also feel free to reach out to your fellow students for information as well.

- Consultation Hours. I will start the semester with a Zoom consultation hour from 5:45 – 6:45 on Thursday afternoons. I will adjust this time or add times to accommodate different groups of students throughout the course of the semester.
Kingsborough Community College Protocols:

- Diversity policy of the College. The administration, faculty, staff, and students at Kingsborough Community College believe that the college is best served by having a campus that is truly diverse. We strive to create a campus where the voices, talents, and skills of all members of the college are valued and respected, and where all members of the college community can thrive. We maintain that a student body, faculty, staff, and administration that reflect the diversity of New York City is vital for the success of our community, allowing opportunities for people with different perspectives, abilities and backgrounds to interact with and learn from each other. We at Kingsborough Community College believe that a focus on inclusive excellence—the proactive fostering of greater diversity, inclusion, and ultimately equity at every level of college life—will maximize success for all members of the college community.

- Preferred Gender Pronoun and Name. I affirm all forms of gender expressions and identities. If you prefer to be called a different name than what is on the class roster, please let me know. Feel free to inform me on your preferred gender pronoun or if you do not have a pronoun. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

  For more information, please visit:
  http://www2.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/legal-affairs/policies-procedures/equal-opportunity-and-non-discrimination-policy/

- Safe Zone Ally. One of the central features of an educated person is the ability to disagree with others, without being disagreeable. As a student at KBCC, you have the right to expect a quality education that is free from prejudice. Regardless of race, ethnicity, national origin, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, religion, age, or ability, you will be treated and respected equally. Bigotry and harassment are not tolerated. I urge you to articulate your beliefs on a wide range of issues, and to do so while treating yourself and your colleagues with genuine respect.
• Academic Honesty and Plagiarism. Academic dishonesty is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Cheating, forgery, plagiarism and collusion in dishonest acts undermine the educational mission of the City University of New York and the students' personal and intellectual growth. At Kingsborough students are expected to bear individual responsibility for their work, to learn the rules and definitions that underlie the practice of academic integrity, and to uphold its ideals. Ignorance of the rules is not an acceptable excuse for disobeying them. Any student who attempts to compromise or devalue the academic process will be sanctioned. Sanctions may include failing grades, suspension, and expulsion. (See www.cuny.edu under “Current Students”) Engaging in acts of academic dishonesty can end a student's school career, have an impact on the person's professional life and jeopardize future career goals.

The full CUNY policy on Academic Integrity can be found at:
http://www.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/sa/policies/AcademicIntegrityPolicywithoutmemo.pdf
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Emerging</th>
<th>Novice</th>
<th>Proficient</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Intro &amp; Thesis</td>
<td>Author jumps right into the details without introducing the topic or offering a thesis statement</td>
<td>A discussion of the general problem that the essay will address, but no thesis statement at the end.</td>
<td>A discussion of the general problem that the essay will address, with a clear thesis statement at the end telling the reader the essay’s conclusions in one sentence.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Application of Concepts</td>
<td>Includes details from more than one level of the system in each paragraph. Mis-identifies examples and the relevant concept.</td>
<td>Organizes each paragraph around a particular concept but mis-identifies examples of one or more of the concepts.</td>
<td>Organizes each paragraph around a particular concept and identifies appropriate examples of each.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Analysis</td>
<td>Describes one or two of the concepts, but does not explain how that influences the behavior of the group or individual being examined.</td>
<td>Describes all three of the concepts, but does not explain how all three influence the behavior of the group or individual being examined.</td>
<td>Describes all three of the concepts, and clearly explains how they influence the behavior of the group or individual being examined.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion</td>
<td>The conclusion simply restates what the author said earlier</td>
<td>The conclusion includes some general statements related to the thesis of the essay, but these are not directly linked to the prior analysis.</td>
<td>The conclusion includes predictions and/or recommendations that are clearly and logically tied to the analysis presented.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Soc 3600 Sec: 01 (3 Credits)

RACE & ETHNICITY
Tues 1:15 – 2:45 PM

CONTACT

Dr. Stuart Parker
368-5622
RaceSocParker@gmail.com
Office: D309
Student Hours: Wed 6 PM – 7 PM or by appointment

WELCOME STUDENTS!

In this course, we’ll explore how race, as a social construct, shapes our economic, social, political, and personal lives. Through the basic concepts of sociology, we’ll study selected minority groups in American society and examine topics such as prejudice, discrimination, assimilation, and more. Your unique perspective and experience are valuable to our discussions, and my goal is to create a supportive and inclusive learning environment where everyone can thrive and grow.

Let’s engage with the material, ask questions, and share our thoughts and ideas so we can make the most out of this exciting journey together!

“Not everything that is faced can be changed, but nothing can be changed until it is faced.”
- James Baldwin

Prerequisite(s): SOC 3100
Flexible Core: U.S. Experience in Its Diversity
Department: Behavioral Sciences
Synchronous Class: Zoom link to be provided

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. Learning Outcomes (pg.2)
II. Creating a Partnership (pg.2)
• My Expectations of You
• My Expectations of Myself
III. Tips for A Successful Semester (pg.3)
• Course Theme
• Your Brain is a Muscle
• Textbook
• Assignments
• Grading
• Resources
• KCC Protocols
IV. Writing Growth Rubric (pg.8)
I. LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Be able to explain why the idea of Race is a socially constructed concept that is not rooted scientifically in biology.

- Be able to describe the process and features of racialization and how it is used to dehumanize certain groups at particular historical times and places.

- Be able to describe several strategies of rehumanization and apply those strategies to a particular case study.

II. CREATING A PARTNERSHIP

My Expectations of You:

- That you believe in your abilities and intelligence to be successful in this course.

- That you will ask questions. The whole point is to learn something new and grow in ways you did not expect.

- That you will make mistakes. No one gets everything right the first time, and one of the best ways to learn is to try and learn from your mistakes.

- That you will treat everyone in the class with respect. All ideas are welcomed as long as they are offered in a reasonable and respectful way.

My Expectations of Myself:

- That I will prepare materials that help you master the basic skills of the course.

- That I will be available to answer questions, provide prompts to help you think deeper about the questions we explore, and provide additional learning opportunities if you want to pursue this subject further.

- That I will treat each of you fairly and with respect, and will foster a classroom environment where it is okay to ask questions, take risks and make mistakes.

- That I will give you multiple opportunities to understand and learn the core concepts. Instead of focusing on how quickly you learn, my grading will focus on what you have learned throughout the course.
Course Theme:

In this course, we will be discussing the issues of borders, social control, and dehumanization in relation to the criminal justice system. While most textbooks approach these topics in a conventional manner, my perspective is that the racialization and dehumanization of various groups is a significant problem in our society. This problem not only affects those specific groups but also contributes to other global issues such as climate change, increased migration and refugees, and political authoritarianism. Throughout the course, we will explore how this process operates and its impact on our society.

Your Brain is a Muscle:

Intelligence is not fixed, and everyone can improve. Learn from mistakes, persist, and challenge yourself. Reframe failure as feedback and keep trying!

Focus on how much you learn, not submitting all the work to earn a good grade

Textbook:

The required text for the course will be:

On Inhumanity by David Livingstone Smith  ISBN: 978-0190923006

This book was published in 2020, and is the most readable text available that describes the most current scientific and sociological understanding of processes of racialization, dehumanization and genocide.

The recommended text for the course will be:

Homegoing by Yaa Gyasi  ISBN: 978-1101947135

This novel, by a young Ghanian-born woman who grew up in Huntsville, Alabama, is essential reading, particularly if you are not from the United States. It will give you deep, complex and compelling background knowledge that will help you understand the enduring influence of the Atlantic Slave Trade on this country.

Both texts will be available on Blackboard where you can read and annotate the text at no cost. You are also welcome to buy a copy of the book and/or the audio version.
Assignments:

- Participation. Each week there will be opportunities to share your ideas with others in the class through discussion boards, blogs and annotations.

- Identity project. Explore the impact of identity categories like race on individuals and society. Investigate personal and social dynamics and create a multimedia presentation to share your insights on oppression and belonging.

- Rehumanization Paper. This rehumanization paper goes beyond simply studying the problems of the world in an academic sense. It offers an opportunity to select a group that actively fights dehumanization and analyze their efforts using concepts from the course. By applying these concepts, you will explain how their efforts work and suggest ways to enhance their effectiveness in rehumanizing the group.

- Midterm and Final Exam. Test knowledge of course concepts and receive feedback.

- Extra Credit. Opportunities to earn extra credit points are available in the Course Information section of Blackboard. There is an assignment titled "Course Extra Credit," where completing one of the assignments/books listed on the handout can increase your overall course grade by 10 points.

Grading:

- Participation: 10%
- Identity Project: 20%
- Rehumanization Paper: 25%
- Midterm Exam: 20%
- Final Exam: 25%

- Blackboard. The assignments for each class, along with other course materials will be on Blackboard. If you cannot currently access the Blackboard website please visit the staff in room L119 for assistance. I am not able to email you assignments.

- Attendance. Attendance is crucial for success in this discussion-based seminar course. Everyone is expected to participate actively and work together to create a safe and comfortable environment for open expression of views.

- Feedback. Failure is necessary for learning. This course offers ample opportunities for failure and feedback from me and your classmates to aid in your success.
- Group Work. Students will frequently work with their classmates during class, ranging from short discussions to longer problem-solving sessions. There will be no specific grade for this work, but respectful and open-minded participation is expected.

Resources:

- Writing. Strong writing skills are essential to success and students are encouraged to take advantage of resources to improve their writing.

  In order to improve your writing skills you may want to take advantage of the Kingsborough Writing Center

    Library Room L219 A description of their services can be found at:
    http://www.kbcc.cuny.edu/rwc/Pages/default.asp

    If you need help with grammar and sentence mechanics you can also find help at:
    http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/.

  The College also has a Writing Fellows program which you will be able to access during the semester. More information will be forthcoming later in September.

- Accommodations. If you have any particular learning needs please let me know in whatever way feels comfortable to you and we will figure out a way to make the class work for you. Access-Ability Services (AAS) serves as a liaison and resource to the KCC community regarding disability issues, promotes equal access to all KCC programs and activities, and makes every reasonable effort to provide appropriate accommodations and assistance to students with disabilities. I will make any accommodations that you need once you provide documentation from the Access-Ability office (D205). Please contact AAS for assistance.

- Communication. I have created a gmail account for this course which you can use for any questions, requests or information that you want to share with me.

  The address is:
  RaceSocParker@gmail.com.

  I will check it twice daily and respond within 24 hours, but my response time may occasionally be longer as I am also the department chair. You can also reach out to fellow students for information.
• Office Hours. I will be available via Zoom on Wednesdays from 6:00 – 7:00PM. You can also schedule an appointment with me if those times do not work for you.

Kingsborough Community College Protocols:

• Diversity policy of the College. The administration, faculty, staff, and students at Kingsborough Community College believe that the college is best served by having a campus that is truly diverse. We strive to create a campus where the voices, talents, and skills of all members of the college are valued and respected, and where all members of the college community can thrive. We maintain that a student body, faculty, staff, and administration that reflect the diversity of New York City is vital for the success of our community, allowing opportunities for people with different perspectives, abilities and backgrounds to interact with and learn from each other. We at Kingsborough Community College believe that a focus on inclusive excellence—the proactive fostering of greater diversity, inclusion, and ultimately equity at every level of college life—will maximize success for all members of the college community.

• Preferred Gender Pronoun and Name. I affirm all forms of gender expressions and identities. If you prefer to be called a different name than what is on the class roster, please let me know. Feel free to inform me on your preferred gender pronoun or if you do not have a pronoun. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

  For more information, please visit:

  http://www2.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/legal-affairs/policies-procedures/equal-opportunity-and-non-discrimination-policy/

• Safe Zone Ally. One of the central features of an educated person is the ability to disagree with others, without being disagreeable. As a student at KBCC, you have the right to expect a quality education that is free from prejudice. Regardless of race, ethnicity, national origin, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, religion, age, or ability, you will be treated and respected equally. Bigotry and harassment are not tolerated. I urge you to articulate your beliefs on a wide range of issues, and to do so while treating yourself and your colleagues with genuine respect.
• Academic Honesty and Plagiarism. Academic dishonesty is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Cheating, forgery, plagiarism and collusion in dishonest acts undermine the educational mission of the City University of New York and the students' personal and intellectual growth. At Kingsborough students are expected to bear individual responsibility for their work, to learn the rules and definitions that underlie the practice of academic integrity, and to uphold its ideals. Ignorance of the rules is not an acceptable excuse for disobeying them. Any student who attempts to compromise or devalue the academic process will be sanctioned. Sanctions may include failing grades, suspension, and expulsion. (See www.cuny.edu under “Current Students”) Engaging in acts of academic dishonesty can end a student's school career, have an impact on the person's professional life and jeopardize future career goals.

The full CUNY policy on Academic Integrity can be found at:
http://www.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/sa/policies/AcademicIntegrityPolicywithoutemo.pdf
Writing Growth Rubric – for Analytic Essays

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Emerging</th>
<th>Novice</th>
<th>Proficient</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Intro &amp; Thesis</td>
<td>Author jumps right into the details without introducing the topic or offering a thesis statement</td>
<td>A discussion of the general problem that the essay will address, but no thesis statement at the end.</td>
<td>A discussion of the general problem that the essay will address, with a clear thesis statement at the end telling the reader the essay’s conclusions in one sentence.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Application of Concepts</td>
<td>Includes details from more than one level of the system in each paragraph. Mis-identifies examples and the relevant concept.</td>
<td>Organizes each paragraph around a particular concept but mis-identifies examples of one or more of the concepts.</td>
<td>Organizes each paragraph around a particular concept and identifies appropriate examples of each.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Analysis</td>
<td>Describes one or two of the concepts, but does not explain how that influences the behavior of the group or individual being examined.</td>
<td>Describes all three of the concepts, but does not explain how all three influence the behavior of the group or individual being examined.</td>
<td>Describes all three of the concepts, and clearly explains how they influence the behavior of the group or individual being examined.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion</td>
<td>The conclusion simply restates what the author said earlier</td>
<td>The conclusion includes some general statements related to the thesis of the essay, but these are not directly linked to the prior analysis.</td>
<td>The conclusion includes predictions and/or recommendations that are clearly and logically tied to the analysis presented.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>